

ST. ANDREW'S BAY. FLA.

Dec. 24th. 1892.

My Dear Friends.

Surely "December is, as pleasant as May" when such exquisite roses may be given at Xmas time. Did you guess my fondness for them? I know you knew of my love for pictures.

Please accept mine & Noras thanks, for she enjoys them as much as I. Cecily says she knows one of them is for her.

Cecily sends her love to Philip & dear little Grace. Please bring them up some time soon to spend the afternoon.

Wishing you every good & perfect gift from Him who loves us all. & Hoping that the coming year holds wrought but good for you

I am now & always

Yours sincerely
Lulu D. Sheppard.
